	The unit
•	included a total of 33 reservists who were quartered and trained in	1
• ,	the barrack camp on the southeastern perimeter of the town, apart finithe other troops. The reserve battery whose training was directed	J. Graceio
_	by Junior Lieutenant Kudlacek (fnu) belonged to the "Jaselsky" regiment (Jaselsky pluk). No detailed information on this regiment was available. The reservists were trained exclusively in the area of the imstallation. After a short period of basic training, they	\ were trained with four Soviet-made 152-mm guns which were towed by caterpillar tractors and were mounted on four-wheeled gun carriages. The reservists once participated as lookers-on in a record firing	: · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · practice of the active troops which was held in the area 9 or 10 kilometers southeast of the reservists' billets. Beside technical
N.	training, a 1-hour lesson of political indoctrination was scheduled to be held every night, but was frequently cancelled. For the entire period of this exercise which lasted from 28 July to 18 August 1954
	a payment of KCs 52.00. 1	25 X 1
2.	Prior to early March 1955, two barracks installations were known in Horsovsky Tyn. The one installation was located on the southern perimeter of the city, about 600 meters southeast of the railroad	• staticn on the Domazlice (N 50/P 70) highway. The other installation was located about 300 meters north of the railroad station. In
•	late 1954, the recruiting district headquarters (OTV) was commanded	ę ·
